Sponsorship Package

Companies, organizations and individuals:

You are hereby invited to sponsor and vend at the 7th Inland Northwest Permaculture Convergence (INPC) taking place September 1 - 3 in beautiful Hot Springs, Montana. The INPC is the leading permaculture happening in the Inland Northwest. We anticipate 300 participants and over 50 workshops, presentations, demonstrations and field trips.

Dozens of companies, organizations and individuals have sponsored one or more INPCs in the past. We hope some of you will sponsor us again. Sponsor perks are similar to past years. We encourage sponsors to have booths/tables at the INPC Trading Circle to do outreach and receive our thanks in person.

Please use our Sponsorship Application form (attached or down-loadable from our website)

Make checks payable to Sustainable Obtainable Solutions (our fiscal sponsor) and mail the form with your check or money order to:

INPG PO Box 2175, Spokane, Wa 99210-2175.

Your sponsorship is tax-deductible: Businesses can normally claim a Convergence sponsorship as a deductible business marketing expense. Individuals who sponsor may deduct their sponsorship on your individual tax reporting as a charitable donation.

We welcome in-kind donations of food, materials and services toward sponsorships. We love serving local food.

INPC is an ideal venue for reaching a green audience with your products, services or mission. Whether you are a large or small business, a service organization or a non-profit group looking to get the word out, our advertising can help share your message with sustainably-minded people throughout the cities and rural corners of the Inland Northwest.

The very best way to support this event is to become an INPC Sponsor. In exchange for your financial or in-kind contribution, you will receive benefits that can include admission passes, promotion, acknowledgment, ad space and space in our Trade Show. Please review the enclosed Sponsor Levels and Benefits page for more information.

Your financial sponsorship helps the INPC fulfill its mission of expanding sustainability initiatives and permaculture in the Inland Northwest. Thank you so much for your consideration and support!

Towards a greener, happier and healthier world,

The INPC Organizing Team
